EMERALD ONYX

COLOUR

Green

MACROSCOPIC DESCRIPTION

It is unique and considered to be a supreme refined treasure. Originating in Iran, non uniform, it is in fact characterized by marked pores and furrows. The dominant color of this onyx is emerald green with darker and lighter striping of walnut to white in color that make the surface livid and crystalline. It is used for interior areas. Ideal for furnishings, artistic elements, items of decoration, sculptures. Its delicate translucent green shades, with hints of light green and even turquoise which dominate the refined coloration of this onyx is mixed with dark beige and white veins.
